Memorandum

To: Doug McGuire

Date: 11/15/89

From: Clarke Ingram

Subj: Non-Entertainment Programming

One overnight feature (Earth News) was left off the list. Also, I went to the program log for Saturday and Sunday, and found more Pittsburgh's Opinion features than I had suspected. So, here are my revised calculations:

PUBLIC AFFAIRS PROGRAMS

"Dialogue".....60 minutes
"On Track".....30 minutes
"American Focus".....30 minutes
"Health Care".....30 minutes
"Powerline".....30 minutes
"Streams In The Desert"...30 minutes
"Scan".....30 minutes

TOTAL: 4 hours per week

MORNING NEWSCASTS

60-second update, 3x/day, 5 days/week
2-minute update, 4x/day, 5 days/week

TOTAL: 55 minutes per week

OVERNIGHT NEWSCASTS

90-second update, 5x/day, 7 days/week
Earth News, 3 min, 5x/day, 7 days/week

TOTAL: 2 hrs 37 min per week

PITTSBURGH'S OPINION

60-second public affairs feature airs:
3x/morning, 5 days per week (Mon-Fri)
17x/weekends (Sat + Sun)

TOTAL: 32 minutes per week

PSA's

15 seconds each x 150 per week

TOTAL: 37.5 minutes per week

WEATHER

15 seconds each x 150 per week
30 seconds in morning drive, 2x/hour,
5 days/week

TOTAL: 52.5 minutes per week

---

GRAND TOTAL: 9 hrs 34 min per week

If the 26 minutes is important, there are a number of half-hour public service programs we could add to the schedule.

love, Clarke

This is a recap of the memo I FAXed you earlier in the month (which you also saw when you visited here), plus what we intend to do to bring us up to the 6% quota.

"On Track".....	30 minutes
"American Focus".....	30 minutes
"Health Care".....	30 minutes

PITTSBURGH'S OPINION (P.A. feature)

To bring us up to the 6% minimum, we are going to rebroadcast our locally-produced public affairs show ("Dialogue") on Saturday at 6am. This will put us over 10½ hours, and also give us the option of possibly cutting back a little on the overnight stuff or the number of times Pittsburgh's Opinion runs.

Anything else you need...let me know!

SUBJECT: NON-ENTERTAINMENT PROGRAMMING

For those of you whose non-entertainment programming did not match 6% (10 hours 5 minutes) of the total broadcast week, you must meet that level.

If you have not already done so, send me a listing of your programming elements and programs that qualify as non-entertainment programming. Accurate accounting of times, lengths, PSA counts and programs is required.

In addition to the six percent rule, it is also company policy that your station-produced local public affairs program run for at least 30 minutes between 7 and 8:00 AM on Sundays. The other half-hour between 7 and 8 AM can be a public affairs program recorded elsewhere. If you meet this qualification, you have great flexibility as to where you place the other 9 hours and 5 minutes.

Helpful idea. Check with your local TV stations to see if they'll let you broadcast the audio of their locally produced PA programs. They'll be topical and local. This does not relieve you of your station's responsibility to produce its own PA show.

I need your outline and when any added programs start XIOS'd to me by 11/29/89.

DATE: Thu Dec 10 07:54:17 1992
SUBJECT: Update

Alan: I have a meeting with Chris Wegman Friday at 8:30 AM.
I have a call into Tom Fauls and will set an appointment ASAP.
I discussed the Quinn situation with Greg Ofiara and he did not see it as a problem. I also discussed the situation with Buddy and told him that I felt Quinn was dated and it is inevitable whether we terminate now or later. I told Buddy and Doug we need to search for a partner for Quinn. I will read the Quinn contract today and discuss the severance with Gooley and you.
After the discussion with Buddy he feels replacing Quinn is the right thing to do.
We added $13,000 yesterday to December in the Double up Double down concept that I wrote you about last week.

I also discussed the Milvale situation with Chris and he has a list of the equipment and still thinks we are proceeding with the Churban format.
Tex

Tex, good moves. I appreciate the speed with which you've handled this. I will await your call about Quinn's severance. When you talk to Chris add these items to your agenda:

1. Who are the good sales people and why?
2. How much revenue is actually booked for Jan-Mar?
3. Can it be saved?
4. Are there any special promotions, events sold?
5. When/how can we get Chris Hudak in to see the studio?
6. Would Chris Wegman want to take a list? (A long shot but maybe he really wants to stay in PIT and doesn't want to be unemployed.)
7. Is the WXP public file in A1 shape? (Expect our friends at Allegheny to be snooping around.)
8. How does he plan to handle public affairs? When will they be scheduled (needs to be at least 1 hour of local after 8:00 AM on Sunday.)

The only person now holding 1% or more of combined Class A and Class B voting power, other than Messrs. Kellar and Box, is James Draper of Winstead, Connecticut, who presently owns 609,423 shares of Class A stock, which is less than 2% of such combined voting power.
